Batchelor Barber Shop Reconditioned

The Glades Mercantile Company recently put down an asphalt tile floor of blue and grey which is pleasing to the eye and will last for many years. The cushions of the barber chairs were covered with a blue plastic material. Chairs for those visiting the shop have been redone and lend attractiveness to the entire shop. Mr. Batchelor extends a cordial invitation to his many friends to drop in and see his new shop.

Congress Is About Appropriate More Cash, Flood Work

Congress is about to authorize an appropriation of an additional $5,000,000 for the Florida water control project. This will mean, with the $1,500,000 voted last year, a substantial start on the phase of the project already approved. However, the stepping up of appropriations must be assured if the $70,000,000 phase is to be completed within five years. The entire $208,000,000 project is expected to take 10 years.

Florida has recently experienced Everglades fires, a sure sign that the drought cycle of the water problem is either with us or lurking around the corner. Primary purpose of the project is to control floods, but at the same time it is designed to prevent droughts, conserve the underground water supply and increase use of land.

So far work has been started on the first big dikes to keep overflow from the Lake Okeechobee area from spreading over Broward (continued on page 8)

Local Baptists To Hold Reception In Honor New Pastor

Canal Point Missionary Baptists are making plans for a reception at 8 p. m. Friday, June 23 at the church for the new pastor, Rev. G. J. Smiley and his family who arrived this week from Blue Mountain, Miss. The Baptists extend a cordial invitation to one and all in the community to participate in welcoming the new pastor and his family to the Lake Okeechobee Region.

Painters and paperhangers, carpenters and plumbers have been busy for the past several days reconditioning the pasturism so that it was spic and span for the arrival of the new pastor and his family.

Lake Lytal, chairman of the county commission, has been invited to deliver the Flag Day address, according to Mr. Blech. The Order of Elks is distinctively American, and Flag Day is one of the three Holidays which Elks Lodges all over the United States are required to observe with fitting ceremonies. You are urged to make a special effort to attend. Bring your family and invite your friends, as this service is open to the public.

Three Weeks Left To Fence Cows Off Of State Highways

TALLAHASSEE—Florida livestock owners have less than three weeks left to make provision for keeping their animals off the highways.

The statewide law requiring stock to be kept off the roads goes into effect July 1. It was passed by the 1949 legislature after many previous sessions had turned it down.

About half the counties already have laws banning livestock from the roads of the whole county or parts of it. To the rest of the counties, compulsory restriction of wandering stock will be something new.

Though the new statute is familiarly identified as the "cattle fencing law," it actually doesn't require the animals to be fenced. It says simply: "No owner shall permit livestock to run at large on or stray upon the public roads of this state."

How the owner keeps the livestock from straying is his own affair. Of course, fencing is the practical way and the means likely to be chosen by everyone.

Those who intentionally or carelessly let their animals stray after July 1 are liable for any accidents or damage caused. They can be sentenced to six months in jail or a $500 fine or both.

Mysterious Fire Damages Car Interior

A mysterious fire completely gutted the interior of a 1941 Hudson 4-door sedan in the repair shop of Lake Shore Company around 8:30 p. m. Tuesday.

The car, a trade-in, had been moved into the repair room that afternoon for overhauling and working over for resale. There was no one in the building when the fire broke out and how it got started is unknown, according to George M. Belk, manager. The city's volunteer firemen kept the flames from spreading.

At the beginning of the 19th century 14 to 18 hours of work a day were common for women and children as well as men.

Will Ask For Bids On New Community Bldg., Canal Point

New action toward large scale development of the new Community Park in Canal Point was taken at the regular meeting of the county commission Monday when on motion of Vice-Chairman Paul Rardin authorization was granted to receive bids on a $12,000 park building.

The proposed 30 by 100 foot structure will be a Community center in the park for meetings of such groups at the Home Demonstration Clubs, the Girl Scouts, 4-H Clubs and other similar organizations.

Vice-Chairman Rardin told the board that one small structure has already been built in the park as a meeting place for Boy Scouts and that he wanted to push improvements so that the recreational area can become a real community center.

As a result of the Canal Point commissioner's action at the meeting, bids for construction of the building will be received in July.

The vice-chairman also submitted at the regular meeting the report of August Weybrecht, Asst. County engineer, on operation of the county prison farm, and noted that there has been a decrease per cost in the maintenance of such (continued on page 8)

Monday Night Set For Council Meets

The Pahokee City Council at a meeting Tuesday night passed an ordinance changing the dates of regular meetings from Tuesday to Monday nights. Hereafter the council will meet on the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 8 p. m.

Another ordinance passed at the meeting provided for the setting up of a board of tax equalization which is to sit for public hearings in the council chamber on July 6, 1950 at 8 p. m. This board will again meet on July 7 to pass on tax millage.

R. H. Gardner, State health inspector, spoke to the council on the necessity of a long-range alum clearance program for Pahokee. Mr. Gardner, working with city health officers, B. B. Justice and Marvin Cowart, will make a survey of the city and specify on a state form the improvements necessary for public health and safety.

City Clerk Clyde Alley read letters from various civic groups asking cooperation of the council in organizing a proposed City Planning Board. Because of the absence of two council members, action on this matter was tabled until all members are present.

Clerk Alley was instructed to insert ads in local newspapers cautioning motorists that speed limits are to be strictly enforced on all city streets.

R. S. Douthit was authorized to drill a test well in the city park to see if underground water of (continued on page 8)

Economy Watchword Of Flood District

WEST PALM BEACH — With economy in mind, commissioners of the Central and Southern Flood Control District (CFD) agreed last week to defer action on the tentative $3,823,000 operating budget for 1950-51. The commissioners voted to postpone action until the July 1 Miami meeting to allow opportunity for any protests and to permit district management to go over the figures with a view to possible reduction on some items.

"It is not our desire to jump in and levy an arbitrary figure," said Joe S. Earmann, commission vice-chairman. "We will have a better idea of our financial setup after our meeting June 20 with the budget commission in Tallahassee."

Commissioner Lawrence Rogers, of Kissimmee, said, "The lower millage we can levy, the better off we'll be for public relations and public service."

Cinematic Character

By Malcolm Miller

Civilization has degenerated the Indian. Director-Leslie Fenton hired two dozen Navajos for key scenes with Glenn Ford in "Beyond the Sunset," during filming on location about 35 miles from Flagstaff, Arizona. He ordered the Redskins to report wearing their Sunday finery. And they did—all snuffed up in dark blue suits and afternoon gowns. "That's not what I mean," said Fenton. "How about your paint, beaded moccasins and feathered headgear?"—"Oh, Indians don't dress like that anymore," answered Chief Hoskie Thorne, spokesman for the groups. "Only in the movies!" So . . . They had to phone Hollywood and have a place-load of traditional Navajo Indian trappings sent out from the wardrobe department. Except for one harness horse, a trotter James Cagney is now out of the horses from his Massachusetts farm . . . By the way . . . Cagney comes to the Prince Theatre screen Sunday-Monday in one of his most exciting pictures—"White Heat," which has lovely Virginia Mayo as the leading lady . . . See you at the movies—Mal.

Jones, and Mrs. Parker. Mrs. Boyd Vorhees was in charge of the devotionals.

The WSCS presented Bibles to Stanley Hooks and Russell Sims, Pahokee High School graduates who are members of the church, with Mrs. L. C. Livingston, students work chairman, making the presentation for the group. It was announced that the next regular meeting of the Canal Point WSCS will be held on the first Tuesday in September.

Starke Ships Heavy Volume Of Green Corn

JACKSONVILLE — A heavy volume of Green corn is coming into the Starke State Farmers' Market, crowding its facilities to the utmost in spite of recent conditions and widening of platforms, according to that market's report to the office of William L. Wilson, Director of State Markets.

Ford Hook Lima beans, Bell pepper and Crowder and Blackeye peas have also been coming in good volume. This activity on this market during the spring season has far exceeded any time since the war.

The Plant City Market sold more than 29,000 units during the past six-day period returning to growers in excess of $60,000.

Legion Will Fight Amendment In Nov.

JACKSONVILLE—The American Legion of Florida will launch an intensive drive to defeat a "limited world government" amendment which will appear on the Florida ballot in the November elections, Department Commander Don Carroll has announced.

Florida Legion leaders met with Carroll here last week-end to set up machinery for a state-wide campaign which will be pressed through more than 250 state Legion posts. A speakers' bureau printed material, press and radio releases and visual aids were authorized.

Commander Carroll said the Department of Florida Legion at its annual convention in April instructed its officers "to educate the people of the state so they may intelligently cast their ballot against this (world government) program in the November election. We have taken the initial steps to comply with this program."

The offices that were formerly located in Orlando have already been set up in the Moose Temple, 3813 Nebraska Avenue, and will be under the direction of Ray. The state director also was first governor of Tampa Lodge. From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Oh—My Aching Feet!

Other night just as I was settling down with a book and a mellow glass of beer, the wife calls down. "Joe—I almost forgot—you and I are going over to the High School and take dancing lessons!"

Now, I can waltz with the best of them, so I put up a quiet struggle against going but it was no use. Turns out it was the class in square dancing. And from the look on some of the other men I judged I wasn't the only one there who had been taken by surprise!

Miss Williams and Curly Lawson taught us what to do with our feet, and before it was over, darn if I wasn't actually enjoying myself. Going back next week, too!

From where I sit, we sometimes get an idea into our head for or against something and then hang onto it for dear life. Whether it's square dancing, or the right to enjoy temperate beer or ale now and then, we owe it to ourselves as Americans to take an open-minded attitude — that's even after we make up our minds about it!

Try this your stereoscope!

WHEN THIS "VIEWER" was in the parlor, folks used to look at pictures like these.

They'd spend many an hour gazing wistfully at scenes of places they'd like to visit, things they'd like to do.

But, today, there's an invention that beats those stereoscopic pictures all hollow. No—it isn't television.

It's the Payroll Savings Plan—an automatic method of saving that all but puts you on that liner and says "bon voyage."

So simple, so painless, so sure—the Payroll Savings Plan sets aside a small part of your earnings each and every pay day, puts it in United States Savings Bonds.

And those bonds grow and GROW. In ten short years they pay you back $4 for every $3 you put in today.

A self-fattening investment—guaranteed by Uncle Sam—that will let you do things for your family and for yourself that you could never do without such a convenient plan.

And, if you're not on a payroll, there's the equally convenient, equally profitable Bond-A-Month Plan at your bank.

No matter how you look at them, U. S. Savings Bonds help to picture a bright, happy future!

Christian Science Society

CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"IS THE UNIVERSE, INCLUDING MAN, EVOLVED BY ATOMIC FORCE?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world on Sunday, June 18.

The Golden Text is: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. . . . All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made" (John 1:1, 3).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted" (Ps. 46:6).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "This matter will finally be proved nothing more than a mortal belief, wholly inadequate to affect a man through its supposed organic action or supposed existence. Error will be no longer used in stating truth. The problem of nothingness, or 'dust to dust,' will be solved, and mortal mind will be without form and void, for mortality will cease when man beholds himself God's reflection, even as man sees his reflection in a glass" (125:31).

Bids Received On Canal L-8 In Flood Control Project

JACKSONVILLE—The Clemens Construction Co., of West New York, N. J., was the apparent low bidder Tuesday for levee construction west of the city of West Palm Beach, the district United States Engineers office said.

Its bid was $261,051.43. The high bid was $663,850. A government estimate was $422,206.

The work involves excavation of 1,150,000 cubic yards of dirt on the southern portion of the canal and levee, L-8, a section of the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District project.

The job is for 3.8 miles of main canal and levee and for 1.4 miles of tie-back canal and levee.

good quality and quantity is available in that area for supplying the swimming pool. The salary of Charles Brown, swimming pool manager, was raised from $35 to $50 a week while the pool is in operation.

The council voted to purchase 500 feet of new fire hose from the Bilateral Fire Hose Company.

E. O. Murphy of Miami offered to sell the city some property adjoining the city hall grounds. Mayor Lewis Friend was asked to investigate this proposition.

York said preparations are being made to handle at least 3,000 swimmers during the summer. All types of swimming from beginners through advanced life saving will be taught. He said that the only requirements for beginners is that the youngsters be able to stand by themselves in the shallow end of the pool.

Last years classes, York said brought an enrollment of some 2,000 student swimmers many of them children not yet old enough to go to school.

The importance of being able to swim, York said, is evidenced by the fact that 26 persons died from drowning in Palm Beach County last year.

and Dade populations. These dikes will be part of the walls of the great conservation lakes, covering huge portions of Palm Beach, Broward and Dade counties.

While the $208,000,000 cost of which $70,000,000 is to be contributed by the state of Florida—is a staggering sum, army engineers estimate the benefits from construction will be double the cost in a 50-year period. If the engineering is sound, who can doubt that the benefits realizable from such a project will be double the cost? The next 50 years should see such a notable growth in Southeast Florida as to dwarf comparison with the past. All the indices point to continued progress. But man here must yet conquer his oldest enemy—nature—and the way has now been charted.—Miami Daily News.

convicts. The report, Rardin said, showed that an average of 52 prisoners had been maintained in the county stockade through May at a cost of $2.52 per day, which is less than in previous reports.

Rardin requested information and was advised by Asst. County Auditor R. B. McKee, that with a check for $1,000 this week, the county has received a total of $81,000 from the racing fund this year.

The Everglades commissioner was also advised by the county engineering department that right of way acquisitions for Bacom Point road to Chosen will develop from a survey now underway.

Vice-Chairman Rardin voted to sit with his colleagues on the commission as a board of equalization, at hearings to begin for a week July 3, and also voted for an adjourned session on June 22 when bids will be received for retreading five pieces of county roads in the Glades.
